RHEUMATISM

AND PILES CURED BY AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

Mr. W. J. JAMES, Adelaide, S. A., formerly of Hawthorn, near Melbourne, Vic., writes:

"For the past 3 or 4 years, I have been a great sufferer from rheumatism and piles. I tried all sorts of medicines, but derived no good from them. I chanced to read one of your books and thought I would give your Sarsaparilla a trial. I did so, and after taking one bottle I felt better, and after taking 4 bottles I was a new man. I was sorry I never took it before, for it would have saved me very much pain."

He publishes valuable work on the disease which he sends with a large bottle of his absolute cure, free to any sufferer who may send their P.O. and Express address. We advise anyone wishing a cure to address, Prof. W. H. PECK, P. O. 4 Cedar St., New York.

THE LEGISLATURE.

THE PRESIDENT SIGNS A NUMBER OF BILLS.

Prospects Are Good For the Final Adjournment Tomorrow - The House Finishing Up Business.

FIFTY-SECOND DAY, AUG. 14.

THE SENATE.

The Senate came to order at the usual hour this morning.

Minister King reported that the President had signed the improved Annexation Resolution, the bills repealing previous legislation in connection with rights of way and cable franchises, the bill to amend the currency Act and the Military Act.

The conference committee on the Alcohol bill reported that the House had acceded to the Senate amendments. Report adopted.

A petition was received from Frank Godfrey stating that he had unjustly and wrongfully been deprived of $40, which he had earned by performing labor for the Senate Committees and asking that he be allowed an opportunity to prove his claim.

The petition was referred to the Committee on Accounts.

The Senate then took recess till 1:30 p.m.

At the afternoon session the Minister of the Interior reported the following bills signed by the President: The Land Act, the three appropriation bills, the act to regulate the giving and filing of bonds on motions for new trials and the Joint Resolution on the cable contract.

Senator Brown suggested that the President be notified that the Legislature is ready to adjourn.

On motion the House resolution that the final adjournment be had on Thursday was concurred in.

Senator Brown moved that a committee be appointed to act in conjunction with a similar committee from the House to notify the President of the action of the Legislature concerning adjournment. President Wilder appointed Senators Brown and Lyman as such committee.

The Senate then adjourned.

THE REPRESENTATIVES.

There was no quorum at 10 o'clock this morning. Prayer by Chaplain Waiamau was therefore the only thing in order. At 10:30 Ministers King and Damon and Rep. Rycroft arrived, when there was another wait for a member who had slipped out in the meantime. It takes nine elected members for a quorum and at 10:35 the following answered to their names: Rycroft, Bond, Haia, Hanuna, Naone, Winston, Cluney, Davis, Halualani.

Minister King reported the following bills signed by the President: Joint annexation resolution, two bills supplanted by new rights of way bill, the new rights of way bill, the currency bill, the military bill.

Rep. Bond from the committee on passed bills reported the cable joint resolution and four bills presented to the President for signature.

A message from the Senate announced its concurrence in amendments to the alcohol bill.

Rep. Hanuna moved a resolution that law books loaned to members at the beginning of the session become the property of the members and be paid for out of the sessional appropriation.

Rep. Bond objected. It was going back to the old regime when members appropriated everything in sight.

Rep. Rycroft objected to it too, for one reason because he had not got any law books. It was understood that those who took the books were to return them at the end of the session. Next session they would get more books and want to keep them too.

Rep. Winston moved the resolution be indefinitely postponed.

Rep. Hanuna held that their work as legislators did not end with the close of this special session. They needed the books to study up for their duties at the regular session. If they did not come prepared, the session could not get its work done in the limit of ninety days. The member for Puna showed the disadvantage of not having law books, as he had to follow the lead of Mr. Robertson whenever points of law were concerned. There was one exception, the land bill, in which Mr. Rycroft was at home.

Rep. Halualani favored the resolution. The books would be more or less damaged by handling now, and it was doubtful if the Minister of the Interior would accept them back.

Rep. Bond repeated that it was starting back to the first state of things. He had paid for his books and other members could do the same.

Rep. Hanuna told a parable of a steward who picked up the crumbs that fell from his master's table without being rebuked. They were stewards of the people. The resolution under which they received the books provided that they should have them for use at both this and the regular session.

Speaker Naone said that provision would then dispense with the necessity of the present resolution.

Rep. Hanuna claimed that it did not make the resolution out of order.

Rep. Winston said if this request was granted each member would need a horse and buggy next session to carry off government property.

The motion to indefinitely postpone the resolution carried, five to four.

There being no business on the table, the House adjourned till 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Methodists to Build.

Honolulu is to have another church building. The Methodist Episcopal Church, of which Rev. H. W. Peck is minister, has bought the lot at Beretania and Miller streets, with the house upon it now occupied by Mrs. Wall and family. It was bought from Tom May, agent for Mrs. Henderson, of London, the owner of the premises. The price is not given out but is said to be a good round figure. A neat, small chapel of wood will be erected on the lot forthwith, for temporary use to abide the growth of the congregation. Ripley & Reynolds are making the plans for the building. The two-story stone dwelling on the premises will remain intact. It was a hotel many years ago.

Notice—Brown & Kubey, wholesale and retail dealers in Watches, Clocks, Jewelry and Plated Goods, formerly of The Masonic Block, have taken the store lately occupied by Scharf's News Stand in the Arlington Block on Hotel St. *

THE DAUVRAY RECITAL.

An Enjoyable Entertainment at the Y. M. C. A. Hall Last Night.

What the audience at Miss Dauvray's recital last evening lacked in numbers it evidently made up in appreciation of the excellent program presented.

Miss Alice Rice, the young and pretty Australian pianist, was first on the program for a solo, "Les Hirondelles" by Streich. The young lady stepped on the stage unannounced and quietly took her seat at the instrument, but after the first few notes the audience quickly realized that musical circles in Honolulu had received a most valuable addition and gave their full attention.

At the conclusion of the long and difficult piece, played entirely without notes, the young lady was greeted with long continued applause and an encore was insisted on, in response to which Miss Rice played some variations on "Home, Sweet Home." Her second number, "L'Amerique" by Bonnaville, gave the artist an opportunity to show her skill, as it included some difficult music played with the left hand only. A second encore was demanded. Although she had only a small audience to play to, Miss Rice may consider her reputation as a pianist of high order already established in this city.

Miss Jessie Axtell has been heard too often to require additional praise. It is sufficient to say that her numbers were sung with the usual artistic excellence for which she has become noted. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Rice.

Miss Helen Dauvray's efforts could hardly be called dramatic, seeing that they were simply recitations from familiar authors. Her elocution was worthy of the rank she had obtained in her profession and her efforts were well received by the audience. The hit of the evening was her song and monologue in imitation of Madame Judic which was encored.

Taken as a whole last night's entertainment was of the highest order of excellence, so much so that it is hoped a similar one may be given before Miss Dauvray's departure. It is said also that Miss Alice Rice is an excellent violinist and her sister an accomplished vocalist. After last night, lovers of music will look forward to hearing them both in the near future.

J. W. Bergstrom leaves for the Coast on business connected with the new organ for Oahu College.

Col. Sam. Norris, proprietor of Kahuku Ranch, Kau, Hawaii, refuses to pay taxes to the present Government.

Both branches of the Legislature will adjourn without day and waive the formality of prorogation by the President.

Special cars for King and Nuuanu streets, at 20c. fares, will be on hand at the close of the dance at Independence Park tonight.

D. Bowers Smith, manager of the Manufacturers' Shoe Co., leaves for the States on a business and pleasure tour of indefinite duration.
